Hail and Farewell

Along about Commencement time is "goodbye time" when we say more or less tearful goodbye to the Seniors who are leaving us, and we have just gone through that experience, saying goodbye to what was left of a fairly large class.

In the last issue of the Messenger, quite a bit was said about the Miltons' leaving us, and now we want to speak of some others: Miss Beattie Lackey - "Miss Beattie" has served the Orphanage most faithfully for nearly a quarter of a century. For a time she was assistant in the kitchen, then kitchen matron, and then housekeeper at the Infirmary where she built up a reputation of being the most succesful flower grower at Barium, in addition to fulfilling a most useful place in providing the food for the Infirmary staff all the time and for a varying number of sick youngsters also. Miss Lackey left us about a month ago; she is living in Statesville, a near neighbor, and we hope to keep our ties of affection that have been built through the years ever fresh and strong.

Mrs. Purdy, who has presided over the dining room so efficiently and faithfully for more years than she likes to have mentioned (we'll say in the neighborhood of seventeen), is leaving us also. There is not a child at Barium who remembers any other dining room matron. The returning boys and girls know just what person to look for to find a place to eat. Mrs. Purdy is giving up her work to take one not quite so strenuous here at Barium. You will still find her when you come back, but someone else will be in charge of the dining room.

Miss Long will leave soon from the kitchen, and how we will miss her! How you boys and girls have smacked your lips over the dishes that Miss Long knew so well how to prepare. She knew so well how to gauge your appetites and to have enough without having too much. Miss Long's father died during the year, and she is leaving us to take up work in Charlotte and to live with her mother over in Lincoln County.

Mrs. Marshall, who has done such a good job as housekeeper and matron in old Alexander and at Jennie Gilmer, is going to leave us soon, also. Mrs. Marshall has also been a pinch hitter in the kitchen, and she can turn out a swell meal anytime she puts her mind to it. Mrs. Marshall is leaving us to move to Charlotte where she will keep house for her two daughters who are now working in Charlotte.

Miss Burgess, a most efficient matron in Howard Cottage, has gone and did not get to carry out some projects that she had started in Howard Cottage. Through her own efforts she secured individual mirrors, and through the cooperation of the carpenter, she was fixing up some special arrangements for each girl in Howard Cottage. You could always depend on Miss Burgess doing a large part of the work herself - "Always Busy Burgess" should be her full name.

Mrs. Thompson from Rumple Hall - Mrs. Thompson was just here a year, but she did a grand job during that year mothering those busy Rumple Hall girls - that's quite a task for anyone! None ever gained the effection of her charges more quickly and more completely than did Mrs. Thompson. Before she had been here two months, they had forgotten her name and called her "Honey" all the time. We regret to give her up!

Mr. Keever, our most efficient English teacher, who had charge of the library and who had a big hand in all school activities, will not be back this fall. We are going to miss not only Mr. Keever, but Mrs. Keever and those two little blonde daughters. One of them is getting big enough already to know how to take care of herself and incidentally to use her eyes for other things than just looking - they have a decided "Come hither" in them already.

I know you want to know who is going to take the place of all these people who are leaving. We would like to know, too. Up to the present the following replacements are: In Mr. Milton's place is Rev. R. S. Arrowood, for a number of years pastor of the McKinnon Presbyterian Church at Concord, and for the last twelve months, President of Mitchell College. He will move to Barium the first of June, and we will welcome him and his family with open arms and hearts.

At Rumple Hall Miss Juanita Hardin and Miss Louise Everett will take over the duties of Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Purdy.

Mrs. Ray Clendenin, Johnny Burgin to most of you, is taking over Howard Cottage. Ray has been called into the service and will soon be reporting to camp. Johnny and little Ray will be permanent residents at Barium with big Ray—a most welcome transient.

Annie Louise Cottage is right now being taken care of by Mrs. Utley, and she is doing a splendid job of it. She took the work on a part time basis, and we are hoping she can be with us for the duration, at least.

Mrs. Ralph Spencer, Bobby Marlowe to you, is taking over Mrs. Marshall's work in Jennie Gilmer. The other vacancies have not as yet been filled. It would be too bad if we could not fill them. We'd just have to stop eating for the duration; that wouldn't do at all. We hope that everything will be in shape before next fall.

We wish all of these departing workers a most affectionate farewell. We'll never get anyone to serve us better or that will have a higher place in our affections. We hope they will get a little bit homesick for Barium just as we know that we'll get homesick for them. They won't be so far from us, but it won't be like having them right here on the job. More of you will miss Mrs. Purdy and Miss Long, because somehow our appetites never take a holiday; they have a big part in our lives three times every day. I know at the meeting of Synod early in September, there will be many people inquiring for these two. They will want to know what has become of Mrs. Marshall also, because there were many who complimented her splendid housekeeping when they used Jennie Gilmer to house the commissioners of Synod. Miss Lackey will be remembered by many. many folks; she is the one who fixed up those meals for you when you were sick, and she is the one who managed somehow to take over Mrs. McNatt's duties when Mrs. McNatt was away. It looks like sometimes that the various bugs that cause illnesses would hide somewhere until Mrs. McNatt left and then kick up a fever in some kid to frighten us all to death.

One time that we remember a youngster ran a very high temperature for no apparent reason. Miss Lackey insisted there was something wrong with that youngster that ought to be attended to. We took him to the hospital in the wee, small hours of the morning; he was on the verge of pneumonia; had we delayed just a few hours, he might have been desperately ill.

There will be a number of children returned to their homes this summer. Arrengements have already been made for the following children to go home: the four little Browns who have been here just long enough for everybody to fall in love with them - Vallie, Clara, Pauline, and Andy. They came here when their mother was quite ill, their father was helpless to look after them; now their mother is well, and they, together with their still younger brother, are all united again at home. Clayton and Peyton Miller from up in Ashe County - their father has remarried, reestablished his home and needs those little youngsters to liven up the house. We don't blame him for wanting these two attractive boys at home again. Wilbur and Evelyn Coats - their mother remarried several years ago, she is living in Baltimore and finally has a home large enough to take care of these fast growing, attractive young people. Charles Smith from Lumberton - he will be eighteen years old in August. He has decided that there is not much point in staying because Uncle Sam will tap him on the shoulder before he really gets started in his final year of school. He wants to visit relatives and friends and then join up even before his 18th birthday.

Our paper this month is pretty well loaded with pictures of the graduating class and the news about those leaving. Our next issues will have something to say about the newcomers.

Freshman and Seniors Presented Two Plays

Tuesday evening, May 2, the children of the orphanage, and also many people from the community, including a number of teachers and students of the Troutman school, enjoyed two one-act plays given by the Freshman and Senior Classes of Barium Springs High School. The Freshman Class presented "Ten Per Cent Tommy" under the direction of their home-room teacher, Miss Reba Thompson. Those taking part in the play were: Bennie Gregory, as Tommy Ballinger, Ida Belle Dunn as Tommy's mother; Mary Ann Ryder, Lee Vinson, and Hannah Price as his sisters; Helen Hawley as the girl friend; Jack Caldwell, Earl Allen, Dwight Spencer, Buddy Lippard, and Horace Denton as Tommy's boy friends; Toni DeLancey as the fruit peddler's daughter; and Myrtle Rushing as the maid.

The second of the plays, under the direction of Miss Ruth Troutman, English teacher, was "Buddy Buys an Orchid". In this one-act comedy Buddy Bradley was played by Hervey Stricklin; Mrs. Bradley, his mother, by Lillie Belle Smith; Alida, his sister, by Bette Lou Williamson; Belle, the hired girl (and very black. by the way) by Mabel Vinson; and Bill, an admirer of Alida, by Paul Burney.

All of the members of these two classes who did not have parts in the plays were on various committees that helped to make the evening a very enjoyable one.

pageant as that would mean naming all of the grammar grade children. A few of the principal parts were played by Herbert Good, Herman Smith, Vivian Jacumin, Ray Powell, Anne Wicker, Jack Jones, and Gwyndolyn Landrum.

When May comes around again, we hope that the teachers and others who helped to make this festival such a beautiful and enjoyable occasion, will have recovered from the blisters they received practicing under the broiling sun, and will be ready to give a repeat performance.

Following the May Festival by the Grammar Grades in the afternoon, the primary grades gave an operetta in the auditorium at eight o'clock in the evening. The principal parts were played by Hazel Creech, Geraldine Katen, Pattie Inman, Billy Black, Jimmie Harrison, Franklin Smith, and Linda Inman. All of the primary children took part.

PERSONALS

The Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel of April 23rd contained pictures of the Beshears boys and a writeup of them. This writeup said that another message had been received from J. D., it read as follows: "Dear Brother: Again I have the opportunity and pleasure of writing you. This message leaves me in good health and hope it finds you the same. I hope and pray it won't be long until we are together again. Our living quarters are as good as could be expected in the conditions and circumstances. Hope to hear from you soon. Your brother, James."

Dalma Jessup who has been missing in action over Germany since February 25th, has just been reported a German prisoner, and we are all much relieved.

A letter came from Robert Blue of Burlington that his brother, Miller had been wounded in action and that he has been awarded the Purple Heart.

"For meritorious service while serving as a member of a Marine battalion in action against enemy Japanese forces on Namur Island, Kwajalein atoll, Feb. 1, 1944. Faced with extremely heavy enemy small arms fire, he led his men forward to an advantageous position and there skillfully organized a defense which secured the right flank of his battalion. His heroic and courageous conduct was in keeping with the highest traditions of the naval service," said Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commending none other than Marine Sgt. Miller Blue!

pastor of the First Prebyterian Church of Albemarle. He based his message on the story of David and Goliath as found in I Samuel 17: 44-50. He began his message by saying that David was not the only one who faced giants in life. "You Seniors have giants to fight. Whether you slay them or they slay you depends on how you are trained and equipped."

The choir for the service was made up of the High Scool Glee Club and Junior Choir. The Glee Club sang the anthem "The Heavens are Declaring". -Beethoven.

The sermon to the young people Sunday night was preached by Rev. W. B. Heyward, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Kannapolis, and Chairman of Presbytery's Committee on Young People's Work. He used as his text, Matt. 6:33, "Seek Ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness."

Two anthems, "Great is thy Lover" by Carl Bohn, and "Send Out Thy Light" by Gounod, were sung by the Junior Choir.

All the Seniors took part in the Class Day Program at eleven o'clock Monday Morning, May 15. An original skit, prepared by the Seniors with the help of Mr. Keever, their home-room teacher, showing' the members of the class in a situation in which they might find themselves at some future time, was very cleverly used as a background for the class history, prophesy, will, and class gifts. Among the gifts was a check presented to Mr. Johonston to be used in some way in memory of the class, if and when a new gymnasium is built at Barium.

Two Recitals Given By Music Department

The 1944 commencement season at Barium Springs began the last week in April with two recitals by the music department. The first of these was given by the piano pupils of the elementary grades Tuesday afternoon, April 25th. The program began with the Star Spangled Banner as arranged by R. M. Stults, played by Mabel Milton and Shirley Inman at two pianos. Others taking part on the program were Hazel Creech, Shirley Thomas, Peggy Neel, Louise Campbell, Lucile Stinson, Ann Wicker, Jackie Porterfield, Patty Inman, Elsie Vest and Mary Morgan.

Thursday evening, April 27th, the second of these recitals was given by the high school piano pupils of Miss Greene, assisted by the glee club, and Miss Carolyn Vidal, violinist. The following high school pupils took part in this recital: Lillie Belle Smith, Myrtle Rushing, Billy Everett, Helen Hawley, Charles Smith, Dixie Lee Buie, Dewie Belle Buie, Bette Lou Williamson, Hannah Price, and Martha Price.

These recitals gave evidence that much has been accomplished this year in both piano and vocal music. Miss Greene, piano teacher, and Misses Vidal and Cherry, musical members of the regular faculty, are to be congratulated for their excellent work.

BABY COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Here we are again having to sit quietly while we get all our little happenings together so we can write to all you nice folks.

School has been out almost a whole week and we have been having fun playing out in the warm sunshine with the clean dirt tickling our bare feet.

The swimming pool opened today and we bet it won't be long now 'till we are in there doing our part of the splashing.

Mrs. Massey has been in Georgia for two weeks with her sister who is sick. We miss her just lots and hope her sister will soon be well so Mrs. Massey can come back to us.

Pauline and Andy Brown have gone home to live with their daddy and mother. We sure will miss our good times, but we are glad that they can go. They said that they would write to us, so we always run to Lilly when she comes from the post office.

Charles Creech found a turtle and gave it to Richard Vest. He put it in the grass and it snapped at little Charles Bowles. Charles didn't run, he said, "I can go faster than a turtle."

While we were playing in the play woods we found a little birds nest with four little blue eggs in it, but we didn't bother it.

Mrs. Cook invited her Sunday School Class to a party. We went to her house, played games on the pretty grass and she gave us candy and cake and ice cream to eat. Mrs. Cook had some Lillies planted down by her house and Shirley thought they were Lilly Bryant who came to the party to see if we had been good and had used our manners.

Well, sitting here is awfully hard for Little Donnie, who says, "Nina wanta go" and that goes for the rest of us. We'll see you again next month.

—The Babies.

RUMPLE HALL

We see the close of a lot of things this month; the seniors are leaving us and we all hope to pass to another grade.

I will venture to say in a whisper "We'll be so happy when school is out".

We have looked with longing eyes at the swimming even on cold days. Soon we can feel the coolness of the water after a hot day.

We have had one of the most elaborate May programs at Barium that we have ever had. Margaret Bullard was May Queen and the queen in the play was Vivian Jacumin. The attendants in the play were Nellie Isenhour, Ann Pope, Francis Rhyne, Evelyn Coates, Virginia Hendrix, Dorthy Shepherd, and your reporter, Annie Star Langley. The teachers did a lot of work for it and we sure do appreciate it. We only wish that you could have seen it.

Our matron, Mrs. R. A. Thompson is leaving us, we sure are going to miss her. She has been faithful to us she has put her very best efforts in trying to make us the kind of girls you would be proud of. Good luck to you Mrs. Thompson.

PRINTING OFFICE

All is quiet before the storm. When I say that, I mean everything is under control before we start trying to put out the Barium Messenger, the Annual, and a few other odd jobs at the same time.

The "printer's devils" Johnny Meroney and and Donald Mitchell have been shining up the equipment for occasions to come.

James Reid has been puttering with the mailing list getting everything under control before the storm.

Mr. Martin, the shoeman, is taking it easy since summer slackens up the shoe trade.

Everyone is feeling like they have a load off their mind since school is out, and are looking forward to vacations and summers' joys.

—Earl Allen.

"A BOY FROM BARIUM SPRINGS"

The Mooresville High School invited seniors from several different schools down to spend the day with them. Among these were our seniors. This was called Vocational Guidance Day.

One girl was so struck when she saw one of our boys that she wrote a poem and sent it to the editor of the Mooresville Tribune.

Here is her letter as it was printed.

My Dear Mr. Editor:

I am sending you a poem after the vocational Guidance Day at the Mooresville High School. I would like to dedicate it to a senior from Barium Springs High School from a student from Mooresville High School if it be thy will Mister Editor.

I was sitting there in chapel
Just thinking over things,
And standing there behind me
Was a boy from Barium Springs.

His hair was dark and wavy
His shoulders broad and square,
And his face was refreshing
As the cool autum air.

Oh! my heart how it flutters,
And my heart how it sings
When anyone does mention
The boys from Barium Springs.

His eyes were as dreamy
As the twinkling stars at night,
And his whole personality
Was like a shining light.

Some thought that day boring,
But in my mem-o-r-y it clings,
For that's the day I first saw,
The boy from Barium Springs.

We have been debating which one of the senior boys it is talking about. See if you can make a decision.
